

Challenging the G-20's Agenda of Corporate Globalization

The G-20 promotes policies that “put profits first” through deregulation, privatization, and “free trade.” Their agenda has harmed working-class communities in the U.S. and around the world, causing job loss, lower wages, poverty, inequality, and environmental destruction.

PEOPLE'S VOICES
www.pittsburghunited.org/g20

Wednesday, Sept. 23

1:00 to 3:00 p.m. Location TBA

Forum with Finance Ministries of Argentina, Brazil, South Africa and India

Presentation and exchange on world economic issues, with representatives of four major governments from the Global South.

3:30 to 6:00 p.m. Location TBA

Panel Discussion on G-20

A panel of local and international leaders and experts will explore how G-20 policies affect our communities, and how we can change them. Co-sponsored with Institute for Policy Studies and The Nation Institute.

Thursday, Sept. 24

3:00 to 5:00 p.m.

People's Voices: A Global/Local Exchange

Emmanuel Episcopal Church, 957 W. North Ave. 15233

Poverty, debt, neighborhood violence, lack of good jobs, and economic development that disrupts communities. These issues don't just impact Pittsburgh – around the world, communities face similar problems. Meet people from other U.S. and world communities. Find out what we have in common, and what can we learn from each other.

6:30 to 8:30 p.m.

People's Tribunal

The economic development priorities of the G-20 will go on trial. We'll hear testimony from experts and people who have experienced devastation caused by G-20 policies, and the tribunal will reach a verdict.

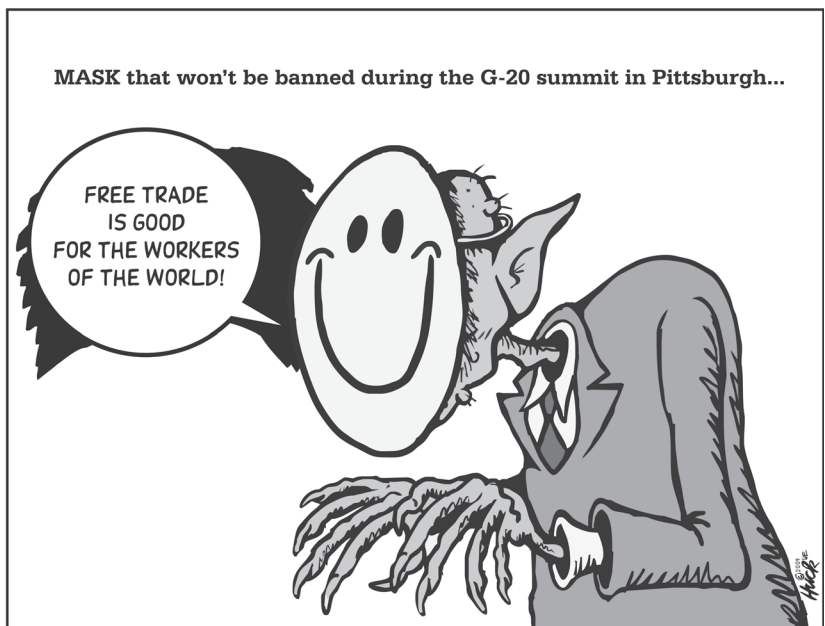

Friday, Sept. 25

9:00 to 11:30 a.m.

Voices from Latin America

David Lawrence Hall, University of Pittsburgh (Forbes Ave. on right side of skywalk)

Leaders of the Hemispheric Social Alliance and labor, indigenous and environmental organizations from Mexico, Colombia, Honduras, Peru and Bolivia, will criticize G-20 policies and offer alternative models of development.

For more information visit www.pittsburghunited.org/g20, or email peoplesvoices.events@gmail.com

Organized by: Alliance for Responsible Trade/
Hemispheric Social Alliance, Center for Latin American Studies, G6 Billion, Grassroots Global Justice Alliance, National Jobs with Justice, Pa. American Friends Service Committee, Pittsburgh United/Northside United, Roots of Promise, Students for Radical Change, United Electrical, Radio & Machine Workers of America (UE).